INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS OF THE WEEK

Phil and Barb

Phil serves as a regional director for the south, eastern, and southeastern area of Asia with the goal of establishing churches—partnering with Asian churches and recruiting and training workers to serve alongside them. Phil preaches, teaches, counsels, and leads. In addition to assisting Phil, Barb spearheads the Rohingya Initiative. The Rohingya is an oppressed ethnic people group from Myanmar who are among the least reached peoples of Asia. Please be in prayer for this couple as they serve severely oppressed people groups within Asia and for others to join them. The couple has three adult children, Isaac, Louisa, and Annie.

Please welcome Phil and Barb this Sunday as they will be worshiping with us and speaking to the McCalliel/Anderson Sunday school class located in the Chapel.

For the third year, UTC will have 22 European college students, representing their countries, during July for a Summer Institute sponsored by our US State Department. They are looking for families/individuals who will volunteer to house one or two students on Saturday, July 14. This is to give them a taste of American culture and family life. The students are vetted, polite, and speak English very well. We can invite them to church services with us on Sunday, July 15. There is a State Department application process through the UTC Global Education Department. If interested, contact any First Friends member or Karen Payne very soon, 423-314-3113 or karenkpayne@comcast.net.
