Prelude Judy Glass and Sigrid Luther
"Praise the Lord! Ye Heavens, Adore Him" by Prichard, arr. by Innes

Preparing Our Hearts and Minds for Worship

He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature, and He upholds the universe by the word of His power. After making purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

"Come Home" by Craig Courtney

Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling, calling for you and for me;

See, on the portals He's waiting and watching, watching for you and for me.

Chorus: Come home, come home, you who are weary come home. Come home, come home, you who are weary come home.

Why should we tarry when Jesus is pleading, pleading for you and for me?

Why should we linger and heed not His mercies, mercies for you and for me.

Chorus

O for the wonderful love He has promised, promised for you and for me!

Though we have sinned, He has mercy and pardon, pardon for you and for me.

New City Catechism Q&A #46

Leader: What is the Lord's Supper?

People: Christ commanded all Christians to eat bread and to drink from the cup in thankful remembrance of Him and His death. The Lord's Supper is a celebration of the presence of God in our midst; bringing us into communion with God and with one another; feeding and nourishing our souls. It also anticipates the day when we will eat and drink with Christ in His Father's kingdom.

All: For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when He was betrayed took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, "This is My body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me." In the same way also He took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

–1 Corinthians 11:23–26

†Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.
